

Depending on the circumstances, you may have the right to have a decision to deny access reviewed. We may deny your request to inspect or copy your PHI if, in our professional judgment, we determine that the access requested is likely to endanger your life or safety or that of another person, or that is likely to cause substantial harm to another person referenced with in the information. You have the right to request a review of this decision.

To inspect and copy your medical information, you must submit a written request addressed to the Privacy Officer. If you request a copy of your information, we may charge you a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other costs incurred by us in complying with your request.

B. The right to request a restriction on uses and disclosures of your PHI.

You may ask us not to use or disclose certain parts of your PHI for the purposes of treatment, payment or health care operations. You may also request that we not disclose your health information to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or for notification purposes as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply. The practice is not required to agree to a restriction that you may request. We will notify you if we deny your request to a restriction. If the practice does agree to the requested restriction, we may not use or disclose your PHI in violation of that restriction unless it is needed to provide emergency treatment. Under certain circumstances, we may terminate our agreement to a restriction. You may request a restriction by contacting the Privacy Officer.

C. The right to request to receive confidential communications from us by alternative means or at an alternative location.

You have the right to request that we communicate with you in certain ways. We will accommodate reasonable requests. We may condition this accommodation by asking you for information as to how payment will be handled or specification of an alternative address or other method of contact. We will not require you to provide an explanation for your request. Requests must be made in writing to the Privacy Officer.

D. The right to have your physician amend your PHI. You may request an amendment of PHI about you in designated record set for as long as we maintain this information. In certain cases, we may deny your request for an amendment. If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of the rebuttal. Requests for amendment must be in writing. In this written request, you must also provide a reason to support the requested amendments.

E. The right to receive an accounting. You have the right to request an accounting of certain disclosures of your PHI made by the practice. This right applies to disclosures for purposes other than treatment, payment, or health care operations as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices. We are also not required to account for disclosures that you requested, disclosures that you agreed to by signing an authorization form, disclosures for a facility directory, to friends or family members involved in your care, or certain other disclosures we are permitted to make without your authorization. The request for an accounting must be made in writing to our Privacy Officer. The request should specify the time period sought for the accounting. We are not required to provide an accounting for disclosures that take place prior to April 1, 2010. Accounting requests may not be made for periods of time in excess of six years.

E. The right to obtain paper copy of this notice.

VI. Our Duties

The practice is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide you with this Notice of our duties and privacy practices. We are required to abide by terms of this Notice as maybe amended form time to time. We reserve the right to change the terms of this Notice and make the new Notice provisions effective for all PHI that we maintain. If the practice changes its Notice; we will provide you with a copy.

VII. Complaints

You have the right to express complaints to the practice and to the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe that your privacy rights have been violated. You may complain to the practice by contacting the Privacy Officer in writing and then mailing it to our office. You will not be retaliated against in any way for filing a complaint.

VIII. Effective date

This Notice is effective April 1, 2010

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION, PLEASE REVIEW CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy Practices is being provided to you as a requirement of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act. (HIPAA). This Notice describes how we may use and disclose your protected health to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your right to access and control your protected health information in some cases. Your “protected health information” means any of your written and oral health information, including demographic data that can be used to identify you. This is health information that is created or received by your health care provider, and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health condition. This notice is effective February 2010, and applies to all protected health information defined by federal regulations.

To receive a copy in larger print please visit our website at www.pillerchilddevelopment.com

Understanding Your Health Record

Each time you visit Piller Child Development, a record of your visit is made.

Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information (PHI)

The practice may use your PHI for purposes of providing treatment, obtaining payment, and conducting health care operations. Your PHI may be used or disclosed only for these purposes unless the Practice has obtained your authorization or the use or disclosure is otherwise permitted by the HIPAA Privacy Regulations or State law. Disclosures of your PHI for the purpose described in this Notice may be in writing, orally, or by facsimile.

A. Treatment. We will use and disclose your PHI to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party for treatment purposes. We may also disclose PHI to other physicians who may be treating or consulting with your care. In some cases, we may also disclose your PHI to an outside treatment provider for purposes of the treatment activities of the other provider.

B. Payment. Your PHI will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for the services that we provide. This may include certain communications to your health insurer to get approval for the treatment that we recommend. For example, if certain procedures are recommended, we may need to disclose information to your health insurer to get prior approval. We may also disclose protected health information to your insurance company to determine whether you are eligible for benefits or whether a particular service is covered under your health plan. In order to get payment for your services, we may also need to disclose your PHI to your insurance company to demonstrate the medical necessity of the services or, as required by your insurance company for utilization review.

C. Operations. We may use or disclose your PHI as necessary, for our own health care operations in order to facilitate the function of the practice and to provide quality care to all patients. Health care operations include such activities as: Quality assessment and improvement activities, Employee review activities, Training programs including those in which students, trainees, or practitioners in health care learn under supervision, Accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities, Review and auditing, including compliance reviews, medical reviews, legal services and maintaining compliance programs, Business management and general administrative activities.

D. Other uses and Disclosures. As part of treatment, payment and Healthcare operations, we may also use or disclose your protected health information for the following purposes: To remind you of an appointment... To inform you of potential treatment alternatives or options. To inform you of health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

II. Uses and Disclosures Beyond Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations Permitted Without Authorization, or Opportunity to Object

Federal privacy rules allow us to use or disclose your PHI without your permission or authorization for a number of reasons including the following:

A. When Legally Required. We will disclose your protected health information when we are required to do so by any Federal, State, or local law.

B. When There Are Risks to public Health. We may disclose your PHI for the following public activities and purposes:

- To prevent, control, or report disease, injury or disability as permitted by law.
- To report vital events such as birth, death as permitted or required by law.
- To conduct public health surveillance, investigations and interventions as permitted or require by law.
- To collect or report adverse events and product defects, track FDA regulated products; enable product recalls, repairs or replacements to the FDA and to conduct post marketing surveillance.
- To notify a person who has been exposed to a communicable disease or who may be at risk of contracting or spreading a disease as authorized by law.
- To report to an employer information about an individual who is a member of the workforce as legally permitted or required.

C. To Report Abuse, Neglect, Or Domestic Violence. We may notify Government authorities if we believe that a patient is the victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence. We will make this disclosure only when specifically required or authorized by law or when the patient agrees to the disclosure.

D. To Conduct Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose your PHI to a health oversight agency for activities including audits; civil, administrative, or criminal investigations, proceedings or actions; inspections; licensure or disciplinary actions; or other activities necessary for appropriate oversight as authorized by law. We will not disclose your health information if you are the subject of an investigation and your health information is not directly related to your receipt of health care or public benefits.

E. In Connection With Judicial And Administrative Proceedings. We may disclose your PHI the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding in response to an order of a court or administrative tribunal as expressly authorized by such order or in response to a signed authorization.

F. For Law Enforcement Purposes. We may disclose PHI to a law enforcement official for law enforcement purposes as follows:

- As required by law for reporting of certain types of wounds or other physical injuries.
- Pursuant to court order, court-ordered warrant, subpoena, summons or similar process.
- For the purpose of identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person.
- Under certain limited circumstances, when you are the victim of a crime.
- To law enforcement official if the practice has a suspicion that your death was the result of criminal conduct.
- In an emergency in order to report a crime.

G. To Coroners, Funeral Directors, and for Organ Donation.

We may disclose PHI to coroner or medical examiner for identification purposes, to determine cause of death or for the coroner or medical examiner to perform other duties authorized by law. We may also disclose PHI to a funeral director as authorized by law, in order to permit the funeral director to carry their duties. We may disclose such information is reasonable anticipation of death. PHI may be used and disclosed for cadaver organ, eye or tissue donation purposes.

H. For Research Purposes. We may use or disclose your PHI for research when the use or disclosure for research has been approved by an institutional review board or privacy board that has reviewed the research proposal and research protocols to address the privacy of your PHI.

I. In the Event of a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may, consistent with applicable law and ethical standards of conduct, use or disclose your PHI if we believe, in good faith, that such use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to your health or safety or to the health and safety of the public.

J. For Specified Government Functions. In certain circumstances, the Federal regulations authorize the practice to use or disclose your PHI to facilitate specified government functions relating to military and veterans activities, national security and intelligence activities, protective services for the President and others, medical suitability determinations, correctional institutions, and law enforcement custodial situations.

K. For Worker's Compensation. The practice may release your health information to comply with worker's compensation laws or similar programs.

III. Uses and Disclosures Permitted Without Authorization But With Opportunity to Object

We may disclose your PHI to your family member or a close personal friend if it is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your care or payment to your care. We can also disclose your information in connection with trying to locate or notify family members or others involved in your care concerning your location, condition, or death.

You may object to these disclosures. If you do not object to these disclosures or we can infer from the circumstances that you do not object or we determine, in the exercise of our professional judgment, that it is in your best interests for us to make disclosure of information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement with your care, we may disclose your PHI as described.

V. Your Rights

You have the following rights regarding your health information:

A. The right to inspect and copy your protected health information.

You may inspect and obtain a copy of your PHI that is contained in a designated record set for as long as we maintain the PHI. A "designated record set" contains medical and billing records and any other that your physician and the practice uses for making decisions about you. Under Federal law, however, you may not inspect or copy the following records: psychotherapy notes; information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or for use in, a civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding; and PHI that is subject to law that prohibits access to PHI.